After being greeted by your local guide, head to the Feria de San Telmo, the famous Sunday market in one of Buenos Aires’ most historic neighborhoods. Meander through street after street of antiques; stop into little shops and view the local works of art, the handcrafted treasures, authentic leather products and more; or sit back with an empanada and yerba mate tea and take in the street performers and musicians. Then, enjoy a drink at your beautiful hotel in the heart of the chic Recoleta neighborhood. Buenos Aires

Tigre y Delta Boat Tour

$60 USD

Just 18 miles outside of Buenos Aires, discover the extraordinary ecological zone of the Parana River delta. Enjoy a tour with a local guide on this breathtaking journey. Behold a picturesque coastline dotted with marinas, stunning homes and riverside dwellings. Upon arrival in San Isidro, take a short trip up the Tigre. A private river excursion by boat explores the streams and canals of this river delta. Each year, 90 million tons of sediment carried by the river creates thousands of islands and islets crisscrossed by rivers and brooks. The natural beauty of the Tigre will amaze you as you travel down its web of interconnecting waterways. Then head to the Puerto de Frutos, where the banks of the Tigre River are transformed into an open-air market. The streets come alive with activity and color. Have time to explore the market with vendors selling fresh flowers, fruit and delicious jams and honey, while others sell beautiful handmade crafts including rustic fabrics and furniture, and accessories made in cane and willow. Join us on this day in the countryside getting to know the natural beauty and the market culture in Argentina.

Duration: Approximately 5 hours. Please note a minimum of 2 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Iguazu Falls

Iguazu Falls Jungle & Boat Ride (Brazil Side)

$80 USD

Venture on a safari into the heart of a lush tropical rainforest where 275 dazzling waterfalls cascade and create nature's soundtrack. In Iguazu National Park, you'll find rare and endangered species of birds, more than 700 species of butterflies, vibrantly colored toucans, the giant river otter and the elusive jaguar. Your tour begins in an open air jeep – trek through the heart of the forest, and for those feeling a little more adventurous, follow one of the guides along some trails to the Salto Macuco waterfall, passing ancient trees and wild orchids on the way! Then it's time for your exhilarating trip on motorized inflatable boats. Mist from the thundering falls nurtures the lush flora surrounding you – including orchids, hearts of palm trees and bromeliads – and rainbows abound. Enjoy a refreshing "waterfall shower" as the captain maneuvers the boat to fully appreciate the scenery. From beginning to end, this rendezvous in paradise is unforgettable. Duration: Approximately 2 hours. Please note a minimum of 1 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Rio de Janeiro

Tijuca Forest National Park and Historic Santa Teresa

$75 USD

Venture into the lush Tijuca Forest National Park by open-jeep for a tour that truly showcases the spectacular rainforest around Rio de Janeiro. Tijuca is all that remains of the Mata Atlântica (Atlantic Forest) which once surrounded Rio. The 8,000-acre park, once stripped bare by sugar cane and coffee plantations, was replanted in 1861 and features stunning waterfalls, high peaks and verdant forest surrounding Corcovado Mountain and the Christ the Redeemer statue. Go in search of the forest's extraordinary wildlife and take in the natural beauty that surrounds you. Pause at the Vista Chinesa overlook pagoda where you'll be rewarded with inspiring views of Ipanema and Copacabana beaches, Guanabara Bay and Sugar Loaf. Stop at one of the park's many entrances and take a short walk on level ground to experience this jungle up close. Then you'll delve deeper into Rio's fascinating history, thriving legacy and blend of colonial classical and Brazilian Imperial elegance. Set off for a tour of the charming Santa Teresa neighborhood, often compared to Paris' historic Montmartre. Arrive via the historic Santa Teresa tramway, the last one still in use in Rio, taking in captivating views of the city below as it travels across the landmark Lapa Arches aqueduct. Santa Teresa's traditional district features beautiful estate homes from the beginning of the century, built mainly by English railroad managers. It's now experiencing a revitalization as an artistic and bohemian center. Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 2 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Cooking Carioca Style

$115 USD

Roll up your sleeves for an authentic Brazilian culinary experience! Get to know the secrets of Brazilian cuisine that blends culinary traditions from around the globe. Set off to a local market where you'll meet your chef and shop for groceries for today's cooking event. Learn about shopping in Rio, and the main staples found in any Carioca kitchen. Then it's time to get into the kitchen! Start off your class with a welcome drink as you enjoy an introductory presentation about Brazilian culinary history. Learn the importance and nutritional value of manioc, or cassava, a staple food of the indigenous culture. Following a delicious tasting of "aipim frito," fried manioc, learn how to make a scrumptious "batida de côco" with coconut. For the entrée, perhaps you'll prepare an authentic Brazilian "feijoada" – a mouthwatering black bean stew from Portuguese tradition – or "Moqueca" – a delectable seafood coconut stew featuring the bounty of the sea. Learn how to choose the freshest ingredients and your chef's culinary techniques to practice at home. Your dessert will be a special surprise, but one you won't want to miss. Of course your gastronomic experience wouldn't be complete without a "caipirinha" cocktail. Join us for this opportunity to really delve into the scrumptious flavors of Brazilian cuisine! Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 4 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

The Rio de Janeiro Olympic Park and Botanical Gardens

$75 USD

Your experience begins by rediscovering the magic of the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro. Take a walk through the main Olympic Park in Barra, and marvel at the stadiums that hosted some of the world's best athletes. Get exclusive entrance into some of these stadiums. Then, savor some free time for lunch along the shore in an area that is a mainstay for many surfers in the region before heading to the historic Rio Botanical Gardens. Founded by King John VI of Portugal in 1808, it was originally intended to grow spices such as tea, nutmeg, cloves and cinnamon, as an alternative to the long trip to Asia to get them. This expansive garden is about 140 hectares and has vegetation similar to the Atlantic Forest. With 7,200 species of plants including roughly 5,500 trees and shrubs, it is considered one of the most important botanical gardens in the world. The 1930s-era English style greenhouse houses a portion of the impressive Orchidarium with over 3,000 orchids. You will then return to the hotel to gather your belongings before transferring to the airport. Note: This optional tour is only available for guests with later departure flight. It is not available for passengers taking the Amazon extension. Duration: Approximately 6 hours. Please note a minimum of 2 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Santiago

Experience Santiago

$199 USD

Experience the best of Santiago. Begin with a journey through the history of Chilean wine at the Viña Cousiño Macul winery, home to the first vines in Chile. Tour their early 19th-century cellar within the heart of the city limits. Then, sample three types of wine and discover why Chilean wine is considered to be some of the best in the world! Then it's off to La Chascona, the former home of the famous Chilean poet and Nobel Prize winner Pablo Neruda. Now a museum, it has remained mostly untouched from his days there and will give you a glimpse into the life and decorating styles of this gifted man. After a short panoramic tour of the colorful streets and lively atmosphere of the Bellavista neighborhood, arrive at De Pablo a Violeta, an authentic Chilean dinner and folklore show. The smell of lamb roasted over an open flame welcomes you into the restaurant, and immediately you'll feel like family when being greeted with drinks and warm smiles. Spend time mingling and getting to know the culture, and once the lamb is ready, it is time for song and dance. Follow the musicians into the theater and take your seat for a delicious three-course dinner – with unlimited wine of course. Then the show begins! Discover different styles of music and dancing from all over this wonderful country, including Easter Island. After experiencing the cultural treasures of Santiago, you will certainly feel like a true Chilean. Duration: Approximately 8 hours. Please note a minimum of 2 passengers is required.
