Day 1 – Thursday, June 4 (L,D)

Travel north along Interstate 5 into the heart of the North Valley. Pause in Redding, in the shadows of the Trinity Alps and Southern Cascade Range, for lunch. Continuing north and east, discover the quaint mountain town of Weed, home the Historic Lumbertown Museum. You'll learn why the lumber industry continues to be a driving force here! Cross the border into Oregon and your home for the evening, Klamath Falls! Dinner is hosted tonight at a local favorite!

Shilo Inn & Suites – 1 night

Day 2 – Friday, June 5 (B,L)

A short drive north brings you to one of the diamonds in the crown of our national parks, Crater Lake! A partially filled caldera from when the volcano called Mount Mazama collapsed upon itself over 7,000 years ago, Crater Lake is one of the most unique scenic spots in the country.

Enjoy the visitors center and lunch at the historic Crater Lake Lodge. Just west of Crater Lake discover Salt Creek Falls, at 286 feet it's Oregon's second highest waterfall. Arrive in Clackamas, your home for the next two nights just outside Portland, in the late afternoon. Monarch Hotel & Suites – 2 nights

Day 3 – Saturday, June 6 (B,L)

It's parade day and the good people of Portland know how to celebrate their collective love of roses! The Grand Floral Parade kicks off in style at the Rose Quarter Arena downtown. The coronation of the Rose Festival Queen highlights the beginning of the parade. Concerned about the weather? Don't be! Your reserved seats will be inside where you will watch the parade as it passes through the climate-controlled arena! Later, enjoy a special luncheon cruise along the Willamette River aboard the Portland Spirit. Pass along the riverfront of downtown Portland and view the large military ships gathered for Rose Festival Weekend. After your cruise, enjoy a guided tour of Portland with a stop at the International Rose Test Gardens in Washington Park. Return to your hotel in the late afternoon.

Day 4 – Sunday, June 7 (B,L)

Returning south, discover the covered bridges of Lane County, just outside the town of Eugene, the home of the University of Oregon. A catered lunch is served on one of the bridges before continuing south to the community of Medford. Remain at your hotel this evening, with several restaurants nearby, or travel 20 minutes south to the town of Ashland, home to the Oregon Shakespeare Festival. You may enjoy dinner at any of the restaurants in the historic downtown and then return to your hotel or stay for a performance at the festival grounds. Available performances will be announced in late 2019.

Holiday Inn Express Medford – 1 night

Day 5 – Monday, June 8 (B,L)

Near your hotel is the headquarters and factory for Harry & David, one of the Pacific Northwest's most known and loved purveyors of fine local fruits and candies. Enjoy a brief factory tour this morning and some time to shop in the Country Village Store. Return to California in the late morning with a stop for lunch in the quaint town of Mount Shasta, nestled in the shadow of its namesake volcano. We'll stop again at the famous Sundial Bridge in Redding, a cantilever spar bridge that spans the Sacramento River and designed by world-famous architect Santiago Calatrava. Arrive in Sacramento in the late afternoon.
