The Barbary Coast was a red-light district which was born during the California Gold Rush of 1849, when the population of San Francisco was growing at an exponential rate due to the rapid influx of tens of thousands of miners trying to find gold. It featured dance halls, concert saloons, bars, jazz clubs, variety shows and brothels. It was described that after dark, the streets crowded by thieves, gamblers, low women, drunken sailors and swindlers. This tour, with professional guide Craig Smith, will explore the wild and dangerous beginnings of this famous world city that started with “Gold, Gold on the American River”. Lunch today in at Pompei’s Grotto (see reverse for full menu). Depart from Mission Oaks at 8:00 am and return at approximately 5:00 pm.
