Rosie the Riveter Museum

Tuesday, May 5th, 8:00am-5:00pm

We will travel to Richmond to see the Rosie the Riveter Museum. We will first go to various locations around the area such as Ford Assembly Line Plant, Kaiser Ship Building Yard and SS Red Oak. We will view these sites and learn the historical perspective on each. We will have a chance to view the museum, which hosts various topics such as rationing, labor shortage and medical innovations. We will have lunch at the Assemble, which is the old Ford Motor Assemble Plant. Bring money for lunch.

Cost of the trip is $38

Highway 49 - Golden Chain Highway

Tuesday, May 12th, 8:00am-5:00pm

On this trip, we will start at Jackson and work our way along the foothills, weaving our way through the small picturesque towns. We will see such places as Sutter Creek, Drytown and Jackson. We will have lunch in the area. Bring money for lunch.

Cost of the trip is $38
